THE COMPACT BETWEEN JAPAN AND RUSSIA.
TOKIO, April 24th.

Prince Komatsu and other military and naval officers held secret conferences at the General Staff Office on the 21st and 22nd inst., the question under discussion, it is believed, being the future policy of Japan and Russia as regards Korea.

According to information which is said to have come from an official source in Seoul, M. Waeber has adopted quite a different attitude towards the Korean Cabinet since the arrangement between Japan and Russia was made, and has declined to give advice respecting the administration of the country. It was this which led to the recent change of Ministry.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF FORMOSA.
TOKIO, April 24th.

It is reported that Marquis Ito, the premier, and Marquis Saigo, the Minister for the Navy, will shortly proceed to Formosa and make an investigation of the state of affairs there. The two Ministers are expected to be away from Japan for thirty days.

INTERFERING WITH A JAPANESE JOURNAL.
SEOUL, April 24th.

Mr. Uchida, the Japanese Consul, has made an apologetic protest against the arrest of Koreans for distributing the Kanjo Shimpō, a Japanese paper.

JAPAN AND RUSSIA IN KOREA.
TOKIO, April 24th.

In expressing his opinion regarding the co-operation of Japan and Russia in Korea, a general in the Japanese army says that the most difficult matter will be the question of stationing troops on the peninsula for the purpose of enforcing order, as this gives rise to possibilities of collision. He suggests that it will probably be found that one country will provide soldiers to keep order in the interior and the other will station its war-vessels at the various ports.

GREAT FIRE AT TOKIO.
TOKIO, April 26th.

Early yesterday morning a fire broke out at a boarding house in Shitaya, Tokio, when 78 houses were completely destroyed and 21 others damaged by the fire before the flames were extinguished.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A STRONG earthquake was felt at Kofs at 11 a.m. on the 26th ult.

DURING the ten days previous to the 21st ult., 72 cases of measles were reported to the Nagasaki authorities.

THERE were ten cases of plague from noon on Saturday until noon yesterday—six from the city. There were eleven cases up to noon to-day, of which seven were from the city, three from British Kowloon, and one from the harbour.

MR. CHUNDA, the Japanese Consul-General who conducted the arduous and lengthy negotiations with the local Chinese authorities over the opening of the four new ports, Soochow, Hangchow, Shanghai, and Chungking, returned to Shanghai on the 26th ult. from his long journey up the Yangtze. He was accompanied by Mr. Narabara, interpreter.

P.C. HOGGARTH, who later in the evening made the plucky capture related in another column, on Saturday evening about 8.30 arrested a priest who was carrying a sword. One of the latter's friends attempted to release him, so both were taken to the station. The priest was this morning fined 50s for carrying arms without a licence, and the would-be rescuer was sent up for twenty-eight days "hard" without the option.

THE China Gazette is informed by an authority which it believes is correct that the Empress Dowager has badly scored two of her most formidable enemies, namely, the Imperial Tutor, Weng Tung-ho, and the Censor who impeached Li Hung-chang in 1894. It is said that Weng has been relegated to a back seat, while the Censor has been deprived of his office and ordered to retire to his ancestral home.

On the 25th ult. a young man named Fukumoto Benchi murdered his employer, Mr. Sakai Kakijiro, and also seriously wounded the wife of the latter with a knife. The affair, which arose out of a dispute about some wages, occurred at Inasa near Nagasaki. Afterwards the murderer went to a grave-yard and was arrested while committing kava kava. He had cut open his abdomen and was just sticking the point of a sword into his throat when he was shot by the police.

ALARMING reports were brought from Kowloon City to the Police this morning of three soldiers having shot a boy and being detained by the authorities. Inquiry showed that three privates of the Asiatic Artillery had had an altercation with some of the villagers, during which a small boy had been kicked and injured, this being the cause of the detention. Acting Captain Superintendent of Police Lathbridge and Detective Quincey this afternoon went over to investigate fully and procured the release of the prisoners.

YESTERDAY afternoon the Captain and Doctor of the German mail steamer Hohenollern were observed taking photographs of Stonecutters Island on shore, and were arrested and handed over to the Police authorities. The Doctor had in his possession a hand-detective camera, which was this morning given to the Military authorities to be examined. On being arrested the Captain was very indignant, and in spite of having been granted every facility by the Police, to have his gr. taken back to the ship, etc., refused for some time to be searched, and seemed to think he was a privileged person. Upon being brought before Comdr. Hastings at the Police Court this morning, the case was remanded until to-morrow to admit of the photographs being developed.
